BILL ANALYSIS

H.J.R. 62
By: Truitt
Elections
Committee Report (Unamended)

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

During the past several legislative sessions, the law has been changed to allow certain unopposed candidates, including those in local races and in special elections to fill vacancies in the legislature, to be declared elected. This policy promotes efficiency in election administration, creates simpler ballots, and helps reduce the costs of elections. HJR 62 proposes a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to permit a person to take office without election if the person is the only candidate to qualify in an election for that office.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

It is the committee's opinion that this resolution does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, department, agency, or institution.

ANALYSIS

HJR 62 amends the Texas Constitution by authorizing the legislature, for an office for which the constitution requires an election, to provide by general law for a person to take the office without an election if the person is the only candidate to qualify in an election to be held for that office.

FOR ELECTION

The cost to the state for publication of the resolution is $85,275.

This bill proposes a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to permit a person to assume an office without an election if the person is the only candidate to qualify in an election for that office.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated. Denton county reported that there would be minimal savings to local election offices for printing and programming costs due to smaller ballots. Larger savings could be possible if a county were to cancel an entire election, but this occurrence is extremely rare. Fort Bend County reported that municipalities, school districts, and other local governmental entities in that county commonly cancel their elections if there are no contested races. Bexar and Victoria counties reported no significant fiscal impact.
